Brom Major Winthrop's "John Brant," The Story of Ham.

fJohn Brent, Sir Biron Biddulph (an English baronet) and Richard Wade (who tells the story) are returning across the plains from Callfornia, when they meet with "Ham" under the following circumstances:]

Winter chased us close. It was full December when the plains left us, fell back, and beached us upon the outer edge of civilization, at Independence, Missouri. The muddy Missouri was running dregs. Steamboats were tired of skipping from sand bar to sand-bar. Engineer had reported to captain that "Kangaroo No. 5 taint. We shall burn it out before many would bust if he didn't stop trying to make | decades.' her lift herself over the damp country by her braces." No more steamboating on the yellow ditch till there was a rise: until the Platte sent down sand three and water one, or the Yellowstone mud three and water one, or the Missouri proper grit three and water one. We must travel by land to St. Louis and railroads. We could go with our horses as fast as the stage conches. So we sold our packbeasts and continued our gallop of three eross Missouri. Half way across, we stopped one evening at the meanest tavern in a mean town

-s frowzy country town, with a dusty publie square, a boxy church and a splitty court house. Fit entertainment for beast the tayern offered.

We saw our horses stabled and had our

"Shall we go into the spittoon?" said Biddulph. "Certainly," said Breut. "The barroom-I am sorry to hear you speak of it with foreign prejudice-is an institution, and merits study. Argee, upon which the bar-room is based, is also an institution." "Well, I came to study American insti-disguat." I'm entertainment for brute the bar-room offered. In that "club room" we found the brute tutions. Let us go in and take a whill of class drinking, swearing, spitting, squahbling over the price of hemp and the price of "niggers," and talking what it called politica." One tall, truculent Pike, the loudest of all that blatant crew, seemed to Bront and myself an old acquaintance. We had seen him or his double somewhere. But neither of us could fit him with a pedestal in our long gallery of memory. Saints one takes pains to remember, and their scenes; but satyrs one endeavors to lose.

"Have you enough of the spittoon?" I asked Biddulph. "Shall we go up? They have put us all three in the same room; but bivouses in the same big room-out doors-are what we are best used to."

Two and a half beds, one broken-backed chair, a washstand decked with an ancient fringed towel and an abandoned toothbrush, one torn slipper, and a stove pipe hole, furnished our bed chamber. We were about to cast lots for the halfbed, when we heard two men enter the next room. The partition was only paper pasted over lath, and cut up as if a border rullian with a bowie knife before a street fight. Every word of our neighbors' came to us. They were talking of a slave bargain. I eliminate their oaths, though such filtration does them injustice. "Eight hundred dollars!" said the first speaker, and his voice startled us as if a dead man we knew had spoken. "Eight DRESS GOODS LINE hundred! that's the top of my pile for that ! boy. Ef he warn't so old and hadn't one eye poked out, I agree he'd be wuth a hear more." "Waal, a trade's a trade. I'll take yer stump. Count out yer dimes, and I'll fill out a blank bill of sale. Murker, the boy's CLOAKS, CIRCULARS, CLOTILDIES, "Murker!" We started at the name, This was the satyr we had observed in the under his cairu in Luggernal Alley, and chased us to take flesh here and harm us again. (Fulano, Wade's horse, had trampled to death a villian of that name who attacked them on the plains.)

The likeness, look, voice and name were presently accounted for. "You're looking for your brother out from Sacramenter bout now, I reckon," said the trader.

"He war comin' cross lots with a man Broadcloths, Cassimeres and Vestings. named Larrup, a pardener of his'n. Like enough they've stayed over winter in Salt | Carpets, Carpets, Carpets Lake. They oughter rake down a most mountainous pile thar."

DAILY GAZETTE.

Brom Major Winthrop's "John Brent," The Story of Ham.

[John Brent, Sir Biron Biddulph (an English baronet) and Richard Wade (who tells the story) are returning across the plains from California, when they meet with "Ham" under the following circumstances:]
Winter chased us close. It was full De-comber when the plains left us, fell back, and beached us upon the outer edge of civilization, at Independence, Missouri.

The muddy Missouri was running dregs.

Steamboats were tired of skipping from sand-bar to sand-bar. Engineer had reported to captain that "Kangaroo No. 5 taint. We shall burn it out before many would bust if he didn't stop trying to make her lift herself over the damp country by her braces." No more steamboating on the yellow ditch till there was a rise: until the Platte sent down sand three and water one, or the Yellowstone mud three and water one, or the Missouri proper grit three and water one. We must travel by land to St. Louis and railroads.

We could go with our horses as fast as the stage coaches. So we sold our packbeasts and continued our gallop of three cross Missouri.

Half way across, we stopped one evening at the meanest tavern in a mean town—a frowzy country town, with a dusty publie square, a boxy church and a splitty court house. Fit entertainment for beast the tavern offered. We saw our horses stabled and had our supper. Shall we go into the spittoon?" said Biddulph. "Certainly," said Brent. "The bar room-I am sorry to hear you speak of it with foreign prejudice-is an institution, and merits study. Argee, upon which the bar-room is based, is also an institution." "Well, I came to study American insti-tutions. Let us go in and take a whiff of Fit entertainment for brute the bar-room offered. In that "club room" we found the brute class drinking, swearing, spitting, squab-bling over the price of hemp and the price of "niggers," and talking what it calted politica.' One tall, truculent Pike, the loudest of all that blatant crew, seemed to Brent and myself an old acquaintance. We had seen him or his double somewhere. But neither of us could fit him with a pedestal in our long gallery of memory. Saints one takes pains to remember, and their scenes; but satyrs one endeavors to lose.

"Have you enough of the spittoon?" I asked Biddulph. "Shall we go up? They have put us all three in the same room; but bivouses in the same big room-out doors-are what we are best used to." Two and a half beds, one broken backed chair, a washstand decked with an ancient fringed towel and an abandoned toothbrush, one torn slipper, and a stove pipe hole, furnished our bed chamber. We were about to cast lots for the half-bed, when we heard two men enter the next room. The partition was only paper pasted over lath, and cut up as if a border rullian member of congress had practiced at it with a bowie knife before a street fight. Every word of our neighbors' came to us. They were talking of a slave bargain. I eliminate their oaths, though such filtration does them injustice. "Eight hundred dollars!" said the first speaker, and his voice startled us as if a dead man we knew had spoken. hundred! that's the top or my pile for that boy. Ef he warn't so old and hadn't one eye poked out, I agree he'd be wuth a heap

"Waal, a trade's a trade. I'll take yer stump. Count out yer dimes, and I'll fill out a blank bill of sale. Murker, the boy's your'n."

"Murker!" We started at the name. This was the satyr we had observed in the bar-room. Had Fulano's victim crept from under his cairn in Luggernal Alley, and chased us to take flesh here and harm us again. (Fulano, Wade's horse, had trampled to death a villian of that name who attacked them on the plains.)

The likeness, look, voice and name were presently accounted for. "You're looking for your brother out from Sacramenter 'bout now, I reckon,' said the trader.

"He wur comin' cross lots with a man named Larrup, a pardener of his'n. Like enough they've stayed over winter in Salt Carpets, Carpets, Carpets. Lake. They oughter rake down a most mountainous pile thar."
"Mormons is flush and sassy with their yer bill of sale, all right."

"And than's yer money, all right."
"That are's what I call a schreechin'

good price for an old, one eyed nigger.— Fourteen hundred dollars—an all-fired

"No; fourteen. Yer see yer not up ter taims on the nigger question. I know 'em like a church steeple. When I bought that are boy, now comin' three year, I seed he was a sprightly nigger, one er yer ambishus sort, what would be mighty ap to git frac-tious, an' be makin' tracks, onless I got a holt on him. So, sez I to him, 'Ham, you're a sprightly nigger, one o' the reel ambishus sort, now sincher?' He allowed he warn't nothing else. 'Wasl,' sez I, jess scrabbie round and raise me seven hun-dred dollars, an' I'll sell yer to yerself, and cheap at that ' So yer see he begun to pay up, and I got a holt on him. He's a handy nigger and a likely nigger, an' a pop'ler nigger. He kin play on the fiddle like taime—pooty nigh a minstril is that are nigger. He kin out har, an' fry a beefsteak with ayry man. He kin drive team, an' do a little jiner work, an' shoe a mule when thar sin't no reg'lar blacksmith round .-He made these yer hoots, and reg'lar stom-pers they is. He's one o' them chirrupy, smilin' niggers, with white teeth and genrally takes to. Wasl, he picked up the bits ell's grocery, Janesville, Wis. teel manners, what critters and foaks nat' and quarters right smart. He's been at it, lammin' ahead raal ambishus, for 'bout three year. Last Sunday, after church, he pinted up the last ten of the six hundred. So I allowed t'wus come time to sell him. He was gittin' his head drawed, and his idees set on freedom very onhealthy. I didn't like to disapp'int him to the last, so I allowed t'wus jess as well to let you hev him cheap to go down river. Biddulph spoke first.
Shame!"

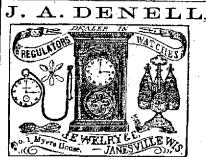

'Yes,' said Brent, 'do you wonder that we have to run away to the Rockys and spend our indignation on grizzlys? 'What are you going to do now?'

'Try to abolish slavery in Ham's case. Come; we'll go buy him a file. 'We seem to have business with the Marker family, said I.

'A hard lot they are. Representative 'I am getting a knowledge of all classes on your continent,' said Biddulph. 'Some

The Removal of McClellan.

The president has at last removed Gen-McClellan, and appointed Gen. Burnside in his place. The true friends of the country will rejoice. McClellan is responsible for the fall of Harper's Ferry, the escape of the rebel army at Antietam, and the safe retreat of Lee to Gordonsville or Richmond. He has so delayed the Union army in Virginin that it is feared little can be done this season. Winter quarters are near, and the situation in Virginia is about the same that it was one year ago. For the whole of this McClellan is responsible. The president gave him almost unlimited control over the armies in Virginia, and hes treated him with great patience under his repeated failures. It is understood that Halleck and Stanton were in favor of his removal six weeks ago, but Mr. Lincoln waited, hoping he would do something to redeem himself. But it was of no avail; he did nothing but wait and keep others back. Thank God the country is delivered from this incubus; we may now hope that something will be done to save us from the ruin which is well nigh upon the country.

The Harper's Ferry Surrender.

The report of the testimony before the commission to inquire into the causes of the surrender of Harper's Ferry is published. The blame falls on Cols. Miles and Ford, and Gen. McClellan. Miles has paid the penalty of his treachery, as it is believed he was shot by one of his own men. Some thing more than a dismissal from the army should be the punishment of Ford. An example ought to be made of the fools and cowards who push their way into responsible positions in the army. Gen. Wool knew these men, and is consurable for giving them the command of so important a hi

Gen. McClellan, it appears, is guilty of culpable delay in relieving the beleaguered forces at Harper's Ferry, and generally for his slow movements against the enemy in Maryland; and this is proved by the testimony of Gen. Halleck. Will the adminirtration longer delay McClellan's removal so long demanded by the best interests of the country, because he is the favorite of a political party? We shall see. n P. S .- Since the above was written, news has been received of the removal of Gen. McClellan. Old Abo begins to move, and we trust there will be a general scattering among the incapables who have surrounded and thwarted him ever since the rebellion began. If he wants to try his hand on i republican general who has not done his duty, to make the matter even politically, we think it might be done. If rumors are true, Gen. Curtis needs a little attention. Cruel Treatment of Col. O'Conner by the Rebels.

The Dryden News, published in Tomp kins county, New York, contains a letter from D. C. McGregor, who was wounded in the same engagement in which Col. O'Connor was killed. Among other incidents on the battle-field, he relates the following: "Col. O'Connor, of the 2d Wisconsin, laid on the ground almost dead from a the rebel army stapped up and took hold into the right course by persons outside of of the Colonel's feet, and said: "God damn you, Yankee Colouel, I want those boots," and pulled them off. Correspondence of the Dally Gazette. From the Twenty-Third Regiment.

NICHOLSVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7, 1862. EDITORS GAZETTE :- Not knowing as you nave any correspondent in the 23d regiment, and knowing that some of your readers have friends in the same, I have taken the liberty to send you a short communication for the Gazette.

I cannot give you a full history of our movements, and in fact I do not consider it necessary. Yesterday morning we left our encampment, four miles above Lexington, and marched to this place, thirteen miles south of Lexington, at the terminus of the Kentucky Central railroad. When we were fairly formed in line and ordered to rest until the rest; of our brigade were ready, (consisting of the 83d and 96th Ohio,) we were auddenly electrified by the appearance among us of about thirty of the 22d Wisconsin regiment. We were not aware of their being near us. Judge of the warm reception which we gave them. Col. Utley, of the 22d, soon came up with the field officers of his regiment. The greeting between them and the officers of the 23d was one long to be remembered. We were now ordered forward. Col. Utley and officers accompanied us nearly two miles, where we found the band of the 22d, which greeted us with fine music. In return we sent up cheer upon cheer. We were forced to leave them, all regretting that we must part.

We soon reached Lexington. As we entered the city, the first prominent object which met our view was the monument of Heary Clay. This monument is one hundred and twenty six feet high, including his statue, which is sixteen feet. How many hearts were filled with deep emotion, as they compared the situation of our beloved country in the days of this illustrious patriot, and its present condition. As we thought of him, whose eloquence so often thrilled the nution, and listened to the strains of martial music, and the tramp of thousands, as they passed the "Home of Henry Clay," we could but weep. Many were the eyes that looked through the iron grates and beheld the marble collin in which were deposited the last remains of this noble man.

One thing is unpleasant to our soldiers, and that is this: We are commanded by a Kentucky general who is for "the Union and the constitution as it was before the rebellion." We are not allowed to fight, but marched to death. Once we encamped within one mile of a fee whom we might easily have captured, but here we must lay until the enemy was clear from our grasp; then we must be marched twenty miles in seven hours, and when tired and thirsty we must be kept from water by the placing of guards with orders to shoot the man who comes to quench his thirst. One Ohio boy captured a secesh turkey; the general's aid informed him; his roply to the aid was, "I roughs. blame you for one thing, and that is because you did not shoot the offender." The same general placed a guard around the ruins of a rebel house which was burnt a year ago. For this last act he was reported to the Secretary of War for guarding rebel property.

The first of January is looked for with great interest. It seems but a mockery to pass through a rebel country as we have for more than a hundred miles, and leave so many rebels behind, and to be ordered to protect their property. Until we pursue a different policy, our efforts to quell the rebellion are vain. To this conclusion our President seems to have arrived at last, and may it come that we may make short work and return to our homes.

RED TAPE IN THE HOSPITALS .- There are thousands of soldiers languishing in our hospitals, who will never be able to serve in the army again, but for whom it is impossible to get a discharge, on account of the tedious formalities made necessary by the absurd rules of the medical department. Why should there not be examining surgeons for authorizing discharges, as well as for admission into the army? It is a subject well worthy the attention of the humane, and some way should be adopted to compel the attention of the government which seems never to learn anything by exwound in the bowels, when a lieutenant of perience; but must be worried and driven its influence. In regard to red tape in our

It is amazing to see the away that red tape again has in the army. Its rule seems off. He said he would have to pay $15 for to be more despotic in our hospitals than such boots in Richmond, and it was clear any where else. Last spring this army king seemed more dethroned in the western de partment-especially in the hospitals. It was no trouble to procure a furlough for our sick; but now it is quite different, and in a great many instances our poor sick soldiers, whose recovery for months seems almost impossible, linger in the poorly furnished hospitals until life is ebbe i out. Even after the papers are started they have to go through the hands of almost every officer, from regimental surgeon up to chief always meet with delay, and often, before that many ought to be discharged from the service whom we met. What possible use charged and sent home, their recovery would be far more probable. Such is the manner

It further learns from a gentleman who lives in De Soto county, Mississippi, that for 20 miles out ou the Pigeon Roost road rebel cavalry have suddenly disappeared. The same gentleman says that for several days past the confederates at Holly Springs had been moving back all their provisions, stores, &c., and that this was understood to be preparatory to evacuating the place. It is highly probable that the rebels have evacuated Holly Springs, and we are expecting the announcement that our forces occupy it.

On Wednesday an expedition left, Helena for Cotton Plant where it was understood a rebel force of 2,500 had gathered. They take five days' rations. Nothing has yet been heard from them. After the evacuation of Maryland Heights. Col. Miles sent word to McClellan, then at Frederick City, that unless reinforced he could not hold out 48 hours. McClellan, say to you, good night. ti erefore, dispatched a messenger to Gen. Franklin, who was engaged with the enemy at Crampton's Gap, wholly unable to give the needed assistance, or to give it in time. McClellan appears to have made no other effort to relieve the place. The enemy attacked Harper's Ferry on the morning of the 15th, and at 8 a. m. the surrender was agreed upon, Col. Miles representing to he brigade commanders whom he conof Wisconsin volunteers, has been appointsulted, that his ammunition was nearly exhausted, and they concurring in his discretion to surrender. The commission acquit Gen. White, DeUssay and Col. Trimble of all blame for the surrender, and praise the of Madison; was among the first to volunespacity of the former. They find that Col. teer, and we doubt not while his promopower to abandon Maryland Heights, but that the exercise of this discretion was pretence that he conducted the defense with no ability, and that his exhibition of lack of capacity disqualified him for command.-Col. Miles is convicted of incapacity and criminal neglect, especially in neglecting to fortify and hold Maryland Heights, the key of the position, and the evidence stated in the report concerning his course with the rebels is such as to raise the strongest sus picion of treachery. Also, Gen. Wool gravely censured for placing so incapable an officer as Col. Miles in command,

Concerning McClellan, the evidence ad duced in the reports, and the opinion expressed by the commission are most direct and damaging. The General in chief testifies that General McClellan, after receiving orders to drive the enemy from Maryland marched on an average only six miles a day in pursuit, and that in his opinion he both could and should have relieved and protected Harper's Ferry. In this opinion the commission fully concur. LOUISVILLE, Nov. 9.

No assault on Nashville up to Friday evening. Nothing heard of Gen. Polk. Wednesday night pickets on the Murfrees-boro, McMinnville and Franklin pike commenced skirmishing. Eight hundred of Stokes' cavalry charged upon Storms' cavalry and drove them within five miles of Franklin, when, meanwhile, a robel force, supposed to be Morgan's, made a dash on the new railroad bride north of Nashville but were repulsed by the federal cavalry In the various skirmishes one was killed thirteen wounded and three missing. Mc-Cook's advance reached Nashville on the afternoon of the 6th. It is reported that the rebels evacuated Murfreesboro and Mc-Minnville, and had gone to Chattanooga. Gen. Jos. Johnston has arrived at Chattanooga and assumed command of the de partment of Tennessee and Alabama. Deserters from the rebel army say Bragg was obliged to destroy most of the property cap tured by his forces in Kentucky to prevent St. Paul, Nov. 8.

STATE OF WISCONSIN evening for some hours, consulting with [Applause.] The state of Illinois, and her Presents advantages in all respects equal, and in some superior, to those of other companies doing business in the northwest. Its rates, its plan of operations, and its basis, are identical with the best companies in this country and Europe. Its age, and consequently its accumulations, are not equal to theirs in amount, but in proporhey will compare favorably with the most auccessful. Its assets, which have resulted solely from their accumulations amount to $115. 712.85, and its annual income, from policies now in force, over $85,000.

Its assets and business are constantly increasing. Its losses have been promptly paid. Its trustees are well known, honorable business men, and are as capable of managing an institution of this kind, as men in any other portion of the United States. The experience of the company thus far proves that we can have as reliable companies in the west as any where else, if we will, and self-interest certainly indicates that we should have them, and build up home interests in every practicable way. In the above respects, this company claims equality with its co-workers, and in the following superiority: It obtains the greater portion of its business in the healthiest portion of the United States, thus having the advantage of a less per centage of loss; it receives higher rates of interest on its investments, thus making more rapid accumulations-both very important items in Life Insurance; and its expenses have been less in proportion to its business than any other new company doing business in the United States.

PROCLAMATION. ANNUAL THANKSGIVING.

To the Propin of Wisconsin: Amidst the manifold vicisaltudes and calamities that save befallen and surrounded us, threatening the life of our nation, and the lives of so many of its hereicand noble sons, it particularly becomes us to turn with grateful hearts to the Supreme Being for the many blessings we

iave enjoyed, and the afflictions we have been spared, The horrors and devastations of war, so fiercely raing around ut have not touched the border of our state; excepting the brave men who have railled around our country's flag in this time of peril, our citizons have been allowed to pursue their perceful avocations; our harvest, though not as abundant as Providence cometimes has pleased to grant us, has : " well compensated the labor bestowed upon it, and well filled our houses and harns; the savage tribes upon our border settlements, so threatening at one time to our peace, have been quieted, and kept under surveillance.

The great cause of our nation, it his true, has not triamplied yet over its onemier, but neither has it yet falled; the enemy has been driven from the soil of the loyal states; our army has been reinforced by hundreds. of thousands of brave, patriotic and noble men ready to do battle, and, if necessary to die for the integrity of the Union; our resources and energies are unimpaired; we have reason to be hopeful for the future, and therefore thankful for the past.

The loyalty, honor and patriotism of the state of Wisconsin have been nobly sustained by her brave sons upon every field of battle where they have been called upon to vindicate our national flag. The just pride which we feel in the bravery of our noble soldiers should fill our hearts with gratitude to_Almighty God, who has sustained them in their hour of trial. For these and other presented blessings which the infinite goodness of God has vouchasfed to us during the past year, we should thank Him from the depth, of our hearts. And therefore, and in accordance with the time honored custom, I do hereby appoint THURS-DAY, the 27th day of November, 1862, As a par or THANKSGIVING AND REST, and recommend to the people of this state on that day to abstain from secular labor, and to assemble at their usual places of worship to show their grateful hearts to the beneficent Ruler of the Universe, and to pray for a speedy suppression of . . the rebellion, and for peace to our distracted country, X In testimony whereof, I have hereunte subscribed

The Removal of McClellan.

The president has at last removed Gen. McClellan, and appointed Gen. Burnside in his place. The true friends of the country will rejoice. McClellan is responsible for the fall of Harper's Ferry, the escape of the rebel army at Antietam, and the safe retreat of Lee to Gordonsville or Richmond. He has so delayed the Union army in Virginia that it is feared little can be done this season. Winter quarters are near, and the situation in Virginia is about the same that it was one year ago. For the whole of this McClellan is responsible. The president gave him almost unlimited control over the armies in Virginia, and has treated him with great patience under his repeated failures. It is understood that Halleck and Stanton were in favor of his removal six weeks ago, but Mr. Lincoln waited, hoping he would do something to redeem himself. But it was of no avail; he did nothing but wait and keep others back. Thank God the country is delivered from this incubus; we may now hope that something will be done to save us from the ruin which is well nigh upon the country.

The Harper's Ferry Surrender.

The report of the testimony before the commission to inquire into the causes of the surrender of Harper's Ferry is published. The blame falls on Cols. Miles and Ford, and Gen. McClellan. Miles has paid the penalty of his treachery, as it is believed he was shot by one of his own men. Some thing more than a dismissal from the army should be the punishment of Ford. An example ought to be made of the fools and cowards who push their way into responsible positions in the army. Gen. Wool knew these men, and is consurable for giving them the command of so important a po-

Gen. McCleilan, it appears, is guilty of culpable delay in relieving the beleaguered forces at Harper's Ferry, and generally for his slow movements against the enemy in Maryland; and this is proved by the testimony of Gen. Halleck. Will the administration longer delay McClellan's removal, so long demanded by the best interests of the country, because he is the favorite of a political party? We shall see.

R. S.—Since the above was written, news has been received of the removal of Gen. McClelian. Old Abe begins to move, and we trust there will be a general scattering among the incapables who have surrounded and thwarted him ever since the rebellion began. If he wants to try his hand on a republican general who has not done his we think it might be done. If rumors are true, Gen. Curtis needs a little attention. Cruci Treatment of Cel. O'Connor by the Rebels.

The Dryden News, published in Tompkins county, New York, contains a letter from D. C. McGregor, who was wounded in the same engagement in which Col. O'Connor was killed. Among other incidents on the battle field, he relates the following:

"Col. O'Connor, of the 2d Wisconsin, laid on the ground almost dead from a wound in the bowels, when a lieutenant of the rebel army stepped up and took hold of the Colonel's feet, and said: "God of the Colonel's feet, and said: damn you, Yankee Colonel, I want those and pulled them off. It hart the Colonel so he screamed that they might spare his life; but the lieutenant paid no ttention to him, and pulled both his boots off. He said he would have to pay $15 for such boots in Richmond, and it was clear gain to have the chance to wear a damned Yankee Colonel's boots."

These are our "southern brethren!"

THE FARM MORTGAGE QUESTION .- The Home League says that there are 6000 farm mortgagors who have united in a secret league in this state to resist the collection of the so-called indebtedness which amounts in the aggregate to $10,000,000, with annual interest at the rate of $400,000 per annum. Working silently, it says the organization has been able to control some of the highest and most important offices in the state. It claims that there are few "innocent purchasers," but that most of "innocent purchasers," but that most of service whom we met. What possible use the mortgages were purchased at from 20 is there in keeping so many men in the hosto 50 per cent., and that not more than half pitals, when it will be almost certain death, the moregages is represented by any comthe mortgages is represented by any completed line of road.

TWENTY-SECOND REGIMENT.-The letter the election returns, says-" We (22d regiment) have changed from one brigade to another, which is the reason we came here. We are with the 19th Michigan, 115th Illinois, and one other regiment, but I do not know who they are although they are not more than ten rods from our camp. Correspondence of the Daily Gazette. From the Twenty-Third Regiment.

NICHOLSVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7, 1862. EDITORS GAZETTE :- Not knowing as you have any correspondent in the 23d regiment, and knowing that some of your readers have friends in the same, I have taken the liberty to send you a short communication for the Gazette.

I cannot give you a full history of our movements, and in fact I do not consider it necessary. Yesterday morning we left our encampment, four miles above Lexington, and marched to this place, thirteen miles south of Lexington, at the terminus of the Kentucky Central railroad. When we were fairly formed in line and ordered to rest until the rest of our brigade were ready, (consisting of the 83d and 96th 31. Angus Cameron. 33. Saterlee Clark. Obio,) we were suddenly electrified by the appearance among us of about thirty of the 22d Wisconsin regiment. We were not aware of their being near us. Judge of the warm reception which we gave them. Col. Utley, of the 22d, soon came up with the field officers of his regiment. The greeting between them and the officers of the 23d was one long to be remembered. We were now ordered forward. Col. Utley and officers accompanied us nearly two miles, where we found the band of the 22d, which greeted us with fine music. In return we sent up cheer upon cheer. We were forced to leave them, all regretting that we must part.

We soon reached Lexington. As we en tered the city, the first prominent object which met our view was the monument of Henry Clay. This monument is one hundred and twenty-six feet high, including his statue, which is sixteen feet. How many hearts were filled with deep emotion, as they compared the situation of our beloved country in the days of this illustrious patriot, and its present condition. As we thought of him, whose eloquence so often thrilled the nation, and listened to the strains of martial music, and the tramp of thousands as they passed the "Home of Henry Clay," we could but weep. Many were the eyes that looked through the iron grates and beheld the marble coffin in which were deposited the last remains of this noble man.

One thing is uppleasant to our soldiers, and that is this: We are commanded by a Kentucky general who is for "the Union and the constitution as it was before the rebellion." We are not allowed to fight, but marched to death. Once we encameed within one mile of a fee whom we might easily have captured, but here we must lay until the enemy was clear from our grasp; then we must be marched twenty miles in seven hours, and when tired and thirsty we must be kept from water by the placing of guards with orders to shoot the man who comes to quench his thirst. One Ohio boy captured a secesh turkey; the general's aid informed him; his reply to the aid was, "I blame you for one thing, and that is because you did not shoot the offender." The same general placed a guard around the ruins of a rebel house which was burnt a year ago. For this last act he was reportrebel property.

The first of January is looked for with assembly consists of 100 members. great interest. It seems but a mockery to pass through a rebel country as we have for more than a hundred miles, and leave so many rebels behind, and to be ordered to protect their property. Until we pursue a different policy, our efforts to quell the rebellion are vain. To this conclusion our President seems to have arrived at last, and may it come that we may make short work H. H. and return to our homes.

RED TAPE IN THE HOSPITALS.—There duty, to make the matter even politically, are thousands of soldiers languishing in our hospitals, who will never be able to serve in the army again, but for whom it is impossible to get a discharge, on account of the tedious formalities made necessary by ty, 69. Cobb has 159 and Simpson 25; the absurd rules of the medical department. Why should there not be examining surgeons for authorizing discharges, as well as for admission into the army? It is a subject well worthy the attention of the humane, and some way should be adopted to compel the attention of the government which seems never to learn anything by experience; but must be worried and driven into the right course by persons outside of its influence. In regard to red tape in our hospitals, the Helena correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says:

It is amazing to see the sway that red tape again has in the army. Its rule seems to be more despotic in our hospitals than any where else. Last spring this army king seemed more dethroned in the western de partment-especially in the hospitals. It was no trouble to procure a furlough for our sick; but now it is quite different, and in s great many instances our poor sick soldiers, whose recovery for months seems al. | the most impossible, linger in the poorly furnished hospitals until life is ebbei out. Even after the papers are started they have to go through the hands of almost every officer, from regimental surgeon up to chief commander. In the hands of each one they always meet with delay, and often, before they are returned from whence they started the poor victim, whose heart they were in-tended to make glad, has slept that sleep that knows no waking. Again it seems that many ought to be discharged from the future to the army-when if they were dis charged and sent home, their recovery would be far more probable. Such is the manner in which affairs are conducted in this defrom R. P. Young, from which we extract partment. And it seems that the Federal army has thus been governed by two fluctuating extremes ever since this unhappy struggle broke out. Strange indeed it is that we can never learn anything by expe

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, NCV. 8. The Herald's dispatch says, Burnside is appointed in the place of McClellan. Hooker takes Burnside's position. Gen. McClellan's removal caused great excitement here to-night.

There are reports that McCiellan passed through here to-day for Trenton.
PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 9.

By order of Gov. Sprague, a salute of 100 guns will be fired in honor of the appointment of Burnside to the command of the army of the Potomac. WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—Gen. Lee is said to have crossed the Rappahannock with his whole force, and to have arrived at Richmond a fortnight ago.

The rebel preparations for retreat had been going on for two mouths. All their plans are known to be matured for winter quarters at Richmond. We hold Warrenon Junction, whence the rebels fell back vesterday. The snow storm will delay military operations in Virginia two or three days. The President notifies all who call on him that he will not modify or withdraw the emancipation proclamation. WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.

A special to the New York Sunday Mercury says the cabinet crisis is impending It is reported that Seward, Smith, Blair and Bates will retire. Their places will be filled by Fessenden, Colfax, Winter Davis, and some other western republicans, per haps Potter. WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.

The Monitor left the navy yard last evening and went down the river. Gen. Hunter returns in a few days to take command of the department of the CAIRO, Nov. 9.

The Memphis Bulletin of the 7th says large federal army passed south of Grand-Junction on Tuesday, 4th inst. It further learns from a gentleman who lives in De Soto county, Mississippi, that for 20 miles out on the Pigeon Roost road rebel cavalry have suddenly disappeared. The same gentleman save that for saveral days and the tleman says that for several days past the confederates at Holly Springs had been moving back all their provisions, stores, &c., and that this was understood to be preparatory to evacuating the place. It is highly probable that the rebels have evacuated Holly Springs, and we are expecting the announcement that our forces occupy

On Wednesday an expedition left Helena for Cotton Plant where it was understood a rebel force of 2,500 had gathered. They take five days' rations. Nothing has yet been heard from them. A force of cavalry had also crossed into Mississippi from Helens to punish rebel bands who had recently given great annoyance by firing on federal pickets. An imposing procession, composed of marines and navy officers, followed the remains of Capt. Blodgett to the cars to-day. They will be sent to Beloit, Wis., for interment. St. Louis, Nov. 8.

Special to Chicago Tribune.-General Schofield's army has returned to Springfield, and is going into winter quarters. Schoheld was there yesterday. There are 1,000 prisoners confined in ton concerning General Curtis' removal, are supposed to refer to certain cotton speculations by members of the general's family at Helena, about which the city has been full of rumors for weeks, and to his failure to take Little Rock, instead of marching to Helena, as requested by his junior officers

The indications are that the emancipationists have a majority in the next legislature. The returns from the interior are unexpectedly gratifying.

McClurg, emancipationist, is probably elected to congress from the Jefferson City district. We carry Grundy, Phelps, Pulaski, Crawford, Greene, Mercer, Buchanan, Warren, Gusconade, Osage, Franklin, Lewis, Adair, ties, on the legislative_ticket, and elect emancipation county officer them. Forty-two emancipationists are elected to the assembly, and about 35 counties not yet heard from.

Boyd is ahead of Phelps in two counties of the southwest. The congressmen elected are Blair (or the congressmen elected are Blair (or Knox) Blow, Scott, Vice, Noell, Rollins, King, McClurg, Boyd, Loan and Hall.—Hall's election is not certain, though the chances are in his layor.

Many of the counties mentioned polled a full average vote, and no soldiers interfered with the voting.
SALEM, Va., 8 o'clock p. m.—The order relieving McClellan was received at headquarters at 11 o'clock last night. It was ntirely unexpected, and every one was taken by surprise. On its receipt the command was immediately turned over to Burnside.

McClellan and staff leave to-morrow for Trenton, New Jersey, where he was ordered to report.

His last official act was issuing an address to his soldiers, informing them in a few words of the change, and taking leave. There is no other news worthy of mention except that the army is in motion.

PHILADELPHIA, NOV. 9. The removal of McClellan caused great excitement here. Among rumors of the cause is one that some instructions from the general-in-chief were not followed, and Lee escaped in consequence. Forney's Press says that it was a purely military act, and the result of a military consulattion and discussion. Although recommended to the President, and approved by him some time ago, it was only finally resolved upon after city last evening at 9:30 from St. Louis, by a change became inevitable. No act of the chicago and St. Louis railroad. An of greater deliberation.

To-Day's Report. [Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, NOV. 9. A long letter from General Halleck to Secretary Stanton, in reference to the want of supplies, &c., for the army shows that nearly all the requisitions had been answer ed by the quartermaster's department, but delays in transportation prevented their arfrom blame, and says, "the idea I have tried to convey was that certain portions of army could not move till supplied." NEW YORK, Nov. 10. The Tribune prints the report of the Harper's Ferry military commission and gives the following synopsis of the facts elicited, editorially. The material facts are as fol-lows: Col. Miles was in command at Harper's Ferry. General White was present from Sept. 12th till the surrender, but did not assume command. Col. Ford took command of Maryland Heights, Sept. 5th. General McClellan left Washington for Rockville, Sept. 7th, most of his forces hav. grateful for so significant an expression of 13th. The 126th New York broke and fled hill was lost.

Col. Miles was on Maryland Heights that evening for some hours, consulting with Col. Ford. He left between Il and 12 clock, without directly ordering Col. Ford to evacuate the heights, but with instructions to spike his guns if compelled to abandon. About 2 o'clock Col. Ford abandoned the heights. The enemy did not occupy them, and the next day Col. DeUssay sent over four companies who brought away four gans and a wagon load of ammunition. After the evacuation of Maryland Heights, Col. Miles sent word to McClellan, then at Frederick City, that unless reinforced he could not hold out 48 hours. McClellan, ti erefore, dispatched a messenger to Gen. Franklin, who was engaged with the enemy at Crampton's Gap, wholly unable to give the needed assistance, or to give it in time.

er effort to relieve the place. The enemy attacked Harper's Ferry on the morning of the 15th, and at 8 a. m. the surrender was agreed upon, Col. Miles representing to the brigade commanders whom he sulted, that his ammunition was nearly exhausted, and they concurring in his discre tion to surrender. The commission acquit Gen. White, DeUssay and Col. Trimble of all blame for the surrender, and praise the capacity of the former. They find that Col. teer, and we doubt not while his promofford was given by Col. Miles descretionary tion was well earned it was also well depower to abandon Maryland Heights, but that the exercise of this discretion was pretence that he conducted the defense with no ability, and that his exhibition of lack of capacity disqualified him for command.— Col. Miles is convicted of incapacity and criminal neglect, especially in neglecting to fortify and hold Maryland Heights, the key of the position, and the evidence stated in the report concerning his course with the ebels is such as to raise the strongest suspicion of treachery. Also, Gen. Wool is gravely censured for placing so incapable an officer as Col. Miles in command.

McClellan appears to have made no oth-

Concerning McClellan, the evidence adduced in the reports, and the opinion expressed by the commission are most direct and damaging. The General in chief testi-fies that General McClellan, after receiving orders to drive the enemy from Maryland marched on an average only six miles a day in pursuit, and that in his opinion be both could and should have relieved and protected Harper's Ferry. In this opinion the commission fully concur.
LOUISVILLE, Nov. 9.

No assault on Nashville up to Friday evening. Nothing heard of Gen. Polk. Wednesday night pickets on the Murfrees ocro, McMinnville and Franklin pike commenced skirmishing. Eight hundred of Stokes' cavalry charged upon Storms' cav-alry and drove them within five miles of Franklin, when, meanwhile, a rebel force supposed to be Morgan's, made a dash on the new railroad bride north of Nashville, but were repulsed by the federal cavalry In the various skirmishes one was killed thirteen wounded and three missing. Mc Cook's advance reached Nashville on the afternoon of the 6th. It is reported that he rebels evacuated Murfreesboro and Mo-Minnville, and had gone to Chattanooge Gen. Jos. Johnston has arrived at Chatta nooga and assumed command of the de-partment of Tennessee and Alabama. Deserters from the rebel army say Bragg was obliged to destroy most of the property cap-tured by his forces in Kentucky to prevent ts falling into Buell's hands.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 8. Over 300 Indians have been convicted by he military commission at Lower Sions Agency, as participators in the late horrile massacres, and condemned to be hung. Whether they live or die rests with the authorities at Washington. The people of Minnesota, to a man, are in favor of their immediate execution.

ond in command to Burnside.

Advices from Sigel's headquarters state that the rebel Gen. Hill's forces are at Front Royal, moving up the valley. A portion of White's rebel cavalry have been captured at Aldie by the cavalry of Gen.

General Bayard's cavalry captured Lieut Col. Blount, of Longstreet's staff, beyond Warrenton, Friday evening. The 8th Illi-nois and 8th New York cavalry entered Culpepper Friday, capturing two pieces of artillery and several prisoners. The rebels retreated towards Gordonsville, followed by our advance. Our forces are pushing on with the greatest rapidity. A general en-gagement it is said cannot long be delayed. WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.

The Tribune's dispatch says Lee arrived at Richmond a fortnight ago, and his whole army about the same time crossed the Rappahannock.

The French minister declares there is not a word of truth in the report that dispatches of a threatening nature have been submitted by him to the state department.

The General steped from the cars into a barouche, and pr ceded by the Great Western Band and folowed by an immense crowd of people, was escorted to the Tremont House, where he had engaged rooms. ANNUAL THANKSGIVING. TO THE PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN:

our nation, and the lives of so many of its hereleand noble sons, it particularly becomes us to turn with grateful hearts to the Supreme Being for the many blessings we have enjoyed, and the afflictions we have been spared. The horrors and devastations of war, so fiercely reging around us, have not touched the border of our state; excepting the brave men who have rallied around our country's flag in this time of peril, our citizens have been allowed to pursue their peaceful avocations; our harvest, though not as abundant as Providence mmetimes has pleased to grant us, has yet well compensated the labor bestowed upon it, and well filledour tonger and barns: the savage tribes upon our border settlements, so threatening at one time to our peace, have been quieted, and kept under surveillance.

failed; the enemy has been driven from the seil of the oval states; our army has been reinforced by hundreds of thousands of brave, patriotic and noble men ready to do battle, and, if necessary to die for the integrity of the Union; our resources and energies are unimpaired; we have reason to be honeful for the future, and there fore thankful for the past.

In 1846, upon the declaration of war against Mexico, Mr. Clay entered the service as captain of the "Old Infantry," a volunteer company which had already distinguished itself in the battle of Tippecanoe in 1811, and which was now converted into dragoons. He reached Monterey while it was the headquarters of Gen. Taylor, and was detached from his regiment and ordered to the van of the army at Saltillo, under command of Maj. Gaines, who was ordered to advance and find the enemy. Captain Clay, with eleven of his men were taken prisoners, Jan. 23d, 1847, at Encarnacion, over 100 miles in advance of the main army. Upon their liberation a card was published by his men, duted Lexington, Ky., of which the following is an extract:

"When Capt. Henry made his escape, and the Mexican commander, excited by the event, gave orders for the massacra of the Americans, Captain Clay exclaimed 'Kill the officers. Spare the soldiers l' A Mexican major ran to him, presenting a cocked pistol to his breast. He still exclaimed Kill me-kill the officers, but spare the men-they are innocent! Who but C. M. Clay with a loaded pistol at his head and in the hands of an enraged onemy, would have shown such magnanimous self devotion? If any man ever was enti-tled to be called 'the soldiers friend,' he is. He was ever watchful and kind towards us, allowing every privilege that would be granted by our enemies-turned all orders and commands into advice and consolation; and upon our march to the city (of Mexico) would take turn by turn, allowing us to ride his mule, that we might stand the march of forty miles a day-divided the last cent of money he had with us, and resorted to every sacrifice to make us happy and comfortable. He disposed of his mule when he found it necessary—the only animal he had; his buffalo rug, his watch and all his clothes but one suit, and supplied our wants. He not only acted in this manner towards those under his immediate command, but to all; and expressed his regret that he was unable to do more. We make no comment upon the character and conduct of Capt. Clay. We state facts-we feel but have no language to express our

Thus did Mr. Clay sacrifice himself upon the altar of his country in 1847, and thus much and infinitely more is he ready and auxious to do in support of his dear old flag in 1862. Let our citizens give this noble hearted man a patriot's welcome at Lappin's Hall, on Thursday avening of this week.

The Hospital Relief Society, of this city, has received, through Dr. Lord of the 13th Wisconsin regiment, an urgent application for stores for their hospital at Fort Henry. He represents their need as very great, their necessary hospital supplies being fexceedingly meagre, and over eighty sick. The society wish to give substantial and speedy response to this call, and hope to have a large and valuable box ready to pack next Saturday.

As the 13th was mostly recruited from Rock, Walworth and Green counties, we hope for much assistance from their friends in this matter. The articles most needed are bedsacks and bed quilts, sheets, pillows and pillow cases, shirts, drawers and socks, and any delicacies relished by the sick. Packages designed for this box should be marked "13th Wis," and may be left at Dearborn's book store, or at the society rooms on Thursday next. By order of the society.

MARIA F. CLARK, Secretary. Janesville, Nov. 10, 1862. nov10d3d1w Box for Capt. Miles' Company.

A box will be packed by Burdick & Newell. grocers on Milwaukce street, for Capt. Miles' company, and sent from here Monday the 17th inst. The friend, of that company who desire to contribute to the comfort of its members are requested to leave their contributions prior to next Monday, if possible.

"THE BUSINESS VIEW."-A new and somewhat novel, though we believe effective medium for advertising is to be presented to our worthy merchants and tradesmen by Mr. W. Delevan, a man worthy of confidence, and who is a deaf mute. The names and business will be printed on a enameled.card, 24x40 inches, embellished with a beautiful steel portrait of some one of the leading men of the day (copied from plates in the "Rebellion Record"). Three thousand copies will be printed and distributed in stores, post offices, depots, and other public places. It will be got up in au artistic manner and form an attractive advertising sheet. This system of advertising has been introduced in the eastern cities, and its popularity there leads Mr. Delevan to hope for a liberal patronage here. -Rockford Register, Sept. 6th.

Mr. Delevan is now in this city soliciting advertisements. His list is nearly full, and embraces the cards of the principal traders in Chicago, Rockford, Dixon, Freeport, Beloit and other western towns. We have no doubt it will be a useful as well as ornamental style of advertising.

DEPARTURE OF REGIMENTS .- The 33d regiment, Col. Moore commanding, will leave Racine next Tuesday, Nov. 11th, and the 28th, Col. Lewis, will leave Milwaukee on the 13th. Both regiments are destined for Cairo.

-A Voice from the Battle-Field!

THE HORROR OF WAR.

IMPORTANT DISCLOSURE.

Remarkable Letter for Everybody to Read!

The following letter from the special corresponden of the New York Evening Express was written immedistely after the recent battles. As it contains many facts of general interest to the people, we are induced to insert it here. We are sure our readers will thank us for doing so:

to least it here. We are sure our readers will thank us for doing so:

This battle (Antietam) has been the most sangulusry of the war, and the only one tought with visible design, and upon military principles. The arrangement of our corps—the overlooking position of the commanding general—the sending into action the right and the left divisions—the closing up of the center and final success-excite bewildering agitation, and carry the mind to the great fields of Austerlitz and Wagram, fought by Napoleon. Of all this have I spoken. The heart lilatory of such a conflict, purchased by the lifeand blood of twenty thousand men, must be found in the hospitals. War has its glories-but it has its ten thousand demons in these human tortures, that make the eye-balls ache-the heart ache-the lips pallid and the brain reel. The sight is at first positively unendurable. The life blood of some is still trickling away in silent calmness—while the dissevered limbs and maniac brains of others, give rise to sounds God grant I may not again witness.

But ye mothers who here seek a son-or wires a husband-or sisters a brother-or sons a father-know and be consoled that even here the hand of mercy is watchful, and better care is bestowed upon your loved ones than might at first seem possible. It was in the hospital where rested the gallant. Hooker that I learned the history of those mythical words, so often seen and so little understood, "S. T -1800-X." Anything alleviating the sofferings and, saving the lives of our soldlers, is a national blessing. I witnessed some astonishing results from this article.

It is well known the effect of burnt gunpowder and excitoment is thirst, which added to the loss of blood in the wounded creates the necessity for a reviving stimulant. In this particular hospital, the physicians were allowing their patients to drink Plantation Bit-at the bottom—before the tremedous advance in exwounded were most numerous here-this division haying opened the fight at five in the morning-the men were mostly composed, and there was very little minting. The article acts upon the stomach and nerves in the most incomprehensible manner, superior to brandy, and without subsequent reaction. It originated in the West Indies, composed of the celebrated Unitarya Bark, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in St. Croix Rumthe S. T.—1860—X being a secret ingredient, not yet revealed to the public. It is principally recommended for want of appetite, disordered liver, intermittent ferers, stomach difficulties, &c. I understandit was somewhat known in the southern states previous to the war, and it appears an agent of Jefferson Davis recently applied to the proprietor for the privilege to make it for hospital purposes during the war, to which they made the tellowing reply: New Your, Jan. 16th, 1662, —, Agent, Ac. DEAR SIA:—In reply to your communication offering us "Fifty Thousand Dollars for the recipe and right to make the Piantation litters for your hospital during the war," we beg to say, your price is a liberal one, considering it would cost us nothing to comply, and that otherwise up can derive up revenue from the suthern states; but sir, our duties to our government and our ideas of consistency, would not allow us to en-tertain it, although it might please us to assuage the sufferings of your misguided followers.

We remain very respectfully yours,

1. II. DRAKE & CO. These gentlemen gave the history of certain ingredients of their article for over two hundred years showing that through all changes of the medical profession and its practitioners, strength, composure and cheerfulness have been derived from these sources. Doctor. Woods, in the Washington Hospitals, informed me that one patient was fast sinking and crary, and had not slept an hour in two weeks until the Plantation Bitters came to his knowledge, when one day's trial gave him a night's rest, and he was now fast recovering. I am surprised our government has not equalled Jefferson HON O Cole, Madison,

Cassius M. Clay.

In 1846, upon the declaration of war against Mexico, Mr. Clay entered the service as captain of the "Old Infantry," a volunteer company which had already distinguished itself in the battle of Tippecanoe in 1811, and which was now converted into dragoons. He reached Monterey while it was the headquarters of Gen. Taylor, and was detached from his regiment and ordered to the van of the army at Saltillo, under command of Maj. Gaines, who was ordered to advance and find the enemy. Captain Clay, with eleven of his men were taken prisoners, Jan. 23d, 1847, at Encarnacion, over 100 miles in advance of the main army. Upon their liberation a card was published by his men, duted Lexington, Ky., of which the following is an extract: "When Capt. Henry made his escape, and the Mexican commander, excited by the event, gave orders for the massacre of the Americans, Captain Clay exclaimed, Kill the officers. Spare the soldiers! A Mexican major ran to him, presenting a cocked pistol to his breast. He still exclaimed 'Kill me-kill the officers, but spare the men-they are innocent!' Who but C. M. Clay with a loaded pistol at his head and in the hands of an enraged enemy, would have shown such magnanimous self-devotion? If any man ever was enti-tled to be called 'the soldiers friend,' he is. He was ever watchful and kind toward; us, allowing every privilege that would be granted by our enemies—turned all orders and commands into advice and consolation and upon our march to the city (of Mexico) would take turn by turn, allowing us to ride his mule, that we might stand the march of forty miles a day—divided the last cent of money he had with us, and resorted to every sacrifice to make us happy and comfortable. He disposed of his mule when he found it necessary—the only animal he had; his buffalo rug, his watch and all his clothes but one sait, and supplied our wants. He not only acted in this manner towards those under his immediate command, but to all; and expressed his regret that he was unable to do more. We make no comment upon the character and conduct of Capt. Clay. We state facts-we feel but have no language to express our

Thus did Mr. Clay sacrifice himself upon the altar of his country in 1847, and thus much and infinitely more is he ready and auxious to do in support of his dear old flag in 1862. Let our citizens give this noble hearted man a patriot's welcome at Lappin's Hall, on Thursday evening of this week.

To the Friends of the "Thirteenth Wisconsin."

The Hospital Relief Society, of this city, has received, through Dr. Lord of the 13th Wisconsin regiment, an urgent application for stores for their hospital at Fort Henry. He represents their need as very great, their necessary hospital supplies being sexceedingly meagre, and over eighty sick. The society wish to give substantial and speedy response to this call, and hope to have a large and valuable box ready to pack next

As the 13th was mostly recruited from Rock, Walworth and Green counties, we hope for much assistance from their friends

The articles most needed are bedsacks and bed-quilts, sheets, pillows and pillow cases, shirts, drawers and socks, and any delicacies relished by the sick. Packages designed for this box should be marked "13th Wis," and may be left at Dearborn's book store, or at the society rooms on Thursday next. By order of the society.

"THE BUSINESS VIEW."-A new and somewhat novel, though we believe effective medium for advertising is to be present ed to our worthy merchants and tradesmen by Mr. W. Delevan, a man worthy of con fidence, and who is a deal mute. The names and business will be printed on a enameled card, 24x40 inches, embellished with a beautiful steel portrait of some one of the leading men of the day (copied from plates in the "Rebellion Record"). Three thousand copies will be printed and distributed in stores, post offices, depots, and other public places. It will be got up in an artistic manner and form an attractive advertising sheet. This system of advertising has been introduced in the eastern cities, and its popularity there leads Mr. Delevan to hope for a liberal patronage here. _Rockford Register, Sept. 6th.

Mr. Delevan is now in this city soliciting advertisements. His list is nearly full, and embraces the cards of the principal traders in Chicago, Rockford, Dixon, Freeport, Beloit and other western towns. We have no doubt it will be a useful as well as ornamental style of advertising.

IMPORTANT DISCLOSURE.

THE HORROR OF WAR.

A Remarkable Letter for Everybody to Read!

The following letter from the special correspondent f the New York Evening Express was written imme liately after the recent battles. As It contains many facts of general interest to the people, we are induced o insert it here. We are sure our readers will thank us for doing so:

This battic (Antictam) has been the most sanguina y of the war, and the only one tought with visible de sign, and upon military principles. The arrangement of our corps—the overlooking position of the command-ing general—the sending into action the right and the left divisions—the closing up of the center and final success—excite bewildering agitation, and carry the mind to the great fields of Austerlitz and Wagram, fought by Napoleon. Of all this have I spoken. The heart history of such a conflict, purchased by the life and blood of twenty thousand men, must be found in the hespitals. War has its glories—but it has its ten thousand demons in these human terrires, that make the eye-balls ache—the heart ache—the lips pailed and the brain reel. The sight is at first positively unendurable. The life blood of some is still trickling away in silent columness—while the dissevered limbs and maniac orains of others, give rise to sounds God grant I may not again witness.

But ye mothers who here seek a son-or wives a usband—or sisters a brother—or sons a father—know and be consoled that even here the hand of mercy is ones than might at first seem possible. It was in the nospital where rested the gallant Hooker that I learned the history of those mythical words, so often seen and so little understood, "S. T -1850-X." Anything alleviating the sufferings and, saving the lives of our soldiers, is a national blessing. I witnessed some astonishing results from this article.

It is well known the effect of burnt gunpowder and excitement is thirst, which added to the loss of blood in the wounded creates the necessity for a reviving stimulant. In this particular hospital, the physician were allowing their patients to drink Plantation Bitters, otherwise called S. T.—1860—X, and although the wounded were most numerous here—this division having opened the fight at five in the morning-the mer vere mostly composed, and there was very little mintng. The article acts upon the stomach and nerves in he most incomprehensible manner, superior to brandy, and without subsequent reaction. It originated in the West Indies, composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Roots, Herbs, &c., all proserved in St. Croix Rumhe S. T.-1560-X being a secret ingredient, not yet revealed to the public. It is principally recommended or want of appetite, disordered liver, intermittent fevers, stomach difficulties, &c. I understand it was some what known in the southern states previous to the war, and it appears an agent of Jefferson Davis recently apalled to the proprietor for the privilege to make it for nospital purposes during the war, to which they made the following reply:

These gentlemen gave the history of certain ingredints of their article for over two hundred years—show ng that through all changes of the medical profession and its practitioners, strength, composure and cheerfulness have been derived from these sources. Docto-Woods, in the Washington Hospitals, informed me that one patient was fast sinking and crazy, and had not slept an hour in two weeks until the Plantation Bitters came to his knowledge, when one day's trial gave him a night's rest, and he was now fast recovering. I am surprised our government has not equalled Jefferson Davis la energy, and adopted this valuable article in all our hospitals. The weak soldiers cling to it like a brother. As a lay member, I can bear witness it is "rood to take," and affords more energy and life that anything I ever tried. Success to the Plantation Bit-

But I have digressed. In my next, I shall speak of gathering in the wounded, burying the dead, &c., &c. NICODEMUS

From the Saturday Evening Gazette,'

A Fact Word Knowns.—The particular and variable state of the atmosphere, at this season of the year, is a prolife source of minsmatic disease. People troubled with Dyspepsia and kindred adments, feel their trouble more seriously at this season than any other.—But all the disease incident to persons of dyspeptic temperaments may be avoided. The Plantation Birrars, so favorably known to our community, are a never failing specific for Dyspepsia, and all its train of concommittant evile. on maing specimen on Dyspepsia, and an its train of con-committent evils.

They are, moreover, a most delicious morning appo-tizer, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage— If we were permitten to say a word in the ear of every sufferer in the land, that word would be—'Try the Plantation Bittera"

The Bitters have attained popularity unparalleled in the history of proprietary medicines. All who use them speak in the highest terms of their wonderful effects and medicinal virtues. The formula upon which they are made accompanies each bottle, so that all may judge for themselves of their efficacy. Success to the Plantation Bitters.

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair. The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainly of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work wall at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but fast long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will carre work morey with tess labor than any others, whether ing order. Our magnitude, as made by as a mine work with less labor than any others, which is inimitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., they are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any purt of a Trimmars' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under those machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small once.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for light Manatcuturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Pamily Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Speeds, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A back needle may render the best machine almost suckers.

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefiting the public and curselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of curs. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are bid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair. The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainly of correct action at all trates of speed, simplicity of contraction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Muchines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best mediand finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that these having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but least long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will consumer when many other machines as gift.
